

From Our Kitchen to Your Party

Creative Catering & Food Styling

Our philosophy

Food catering for us is crafting tasty food and creating a style and a memory for you as we believe food is much more than just good food and good company. It's part of a bigger occasion; often a personal or emotional milestone.

Freshness

All ingredients are market-fresh, handpicked, and of premium quality. All foods, hot and cold, are prepared just prior to delivery – so appearance, aroma, and flavors are irresistible.

Authenticity

Every dish is prepared with loving reverence for the original, time-honored recipe.

Presentation

All food is served with an attractive combination of modern and ancient Mediterranean style. We understand that fine food enjoyment lies in three pillars: in the anticipation, in the presentation, and in the fulfillment.

Platters

The following is a guide to assess the number of platters required. Clients then liaise with us to ensure an appropriate combination of food types and quantities.
